Dr. Johnson and A. Gemmill Arrested.

They Confess to the Perfermance of a Crimina! Operation.

Mary M. Baer, a daughter of Theodore M. Baer, 375 North Seventh West, was the mother of the unborn infant alleged to have been killed by the two roen. She is 17 years old and is at present in Dr. Lewis's private hospital, where she is receiving medical at-infant in the furnace of the Auditorium rooming house. The offense is alleged to have been committed on July 8.

Gemmill, who is a son of Alex Gemmill of 123 South Fifth East, had been keeping company with the girl some time, with the understanding that they were to be married soon. They could not prevail on any of the physicians in Salt Lake to perform any operation, so they went to Johnson, who says he consented at the earnest pleading of the girl herself, and that he received no money for his services.

Scoret Becomes Known.

Secret Becomes Known.

Mary Eacr has been seen on the street frequently since the operation and it was thought by all interested that the secret would be kept.

The police acquired knowledge acci-dentally as the girl confided in one or two of her neighbors who made it a matter of gossip. Gemmill was then arrested at about 5 o'clock on Friday evening, while Dr. Johnson was taken by Chase and Shannon a few minutes later in his office at 311 Atlas block. Great mystery was made out of the arrests both by Chief Lynch and Capt. Burbidge, who sald, when questioned the same evening as to what the men were charged with, that they were afraid to give out the facts for fear that some others they wanted would get away. The police say they have still some witnesses to procure and re-fuse to discuss the matter.

Both Men in Jail. Both men, when seen in jall yesterday, implored that the case be kept quiet. They are both members of the National Guard and well known in Salt Lake, although Dr. Johnson has not been here very long. They freely confessed their crime when arrested, although the dentist at first pretended to know nothing at all of the matter. They were taken aback by the appearance of the detectives, as they were sure the whole affair had been kent. sure the whole affair had been kept Kept at Hospital.

Assistant County Physician Odell and W. S. Ellerbeck called at the private hospital yesterday afternoon and examined the girl. While she is in no danger from the effects of the opera-tion, her heart is in bad condition and the two physicians advised that she be kept at the hospital for the present, as her removal to the jail might bring on an attack of heart failure.

The police are now gathering evi-dence against a physician who is be-Heved to have been attending the Baer girl and giving her powerful drugs if, indeed, he did not attempt an operation. This physician, it is charged, is known to be addicted to this sort of practice and has been arrested a number of Fine Tabernacle Recital.

That was a very splendid audience which turned out to greet Viola Pratt Gillette, Mr. McClellan and Mr. Weihe at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon, one which almost filled the great build-ing. And it was a very splendid programme that was given by the three artists taking part, one of the very best ever heard at an afternoon recital. The numbers were gens, all of them, and the audience could not well refrain from breaking the new rule regarding applause—and yesterday bestowed it generously upon those taking part. The programme was given as published yes-terday, Mrs. Gillette giving an encore at the close of the last number, singing with much feeling the old melody,
"Down the Stream of Time." Mr. McClellan closed the programme with

City and Neighborhood | RALPH WOOLLEY'S SUDDEN GOING

Friends Anxious as to His Whereabouts.

He Had Been III Following an Operation for Appendicitis.

Possibility That When Young Man Left His Employment He Went to California.

Ralph Woolley, son of Bishop M. S. Woolley of the Twenty-first ward, mysteriously disappeared from his home in this city on or about July 2, and no trace of him or his whereabouts has yet been found by his family. On the morning of the day named, young Woolley reported for work at the Dinwoodey Furniture company's store where he had been employed in the capacity of salesman for about two months. The day previous he received his salary for the month of June, and the impression is that he used this money to purchase a railroad ticket with which to leave the city. Had Been Ill.

Young Woolley left a wife and baby, the former a daughter of Spencer Clawson, and they are now living at the home of Bishop Woolley. The young man had recently undergone an operation for appendicitis and frequently complained of not feeling well. To one employee of the store he said just a few days before his disappearance that this altitude did not agree with him and he thought he would return to California.

Whereabouts Not Known.

Knowledge of the young man's disappearance was not forthcoming at the Woolley home last evening, and it is known that the matter has been kept known that the matter has been kept a secret. No one connected with the store where young Woolley worked would admit that the young man was no longer working there. Bishop Woolley said that Ralph lived with him when in the city, but when pressed for an answer as to whether or not he is now in the city, replied: "I don't know anything about it."

Tourists Have Trouble.

Great entertainment was furnished the guests of the Manitou hotel last night by a fracas between Mrs. Hanks, the landlady, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Brockway, tourists from the East, who, according to the former, did not pay enough. The visitors declared that they had paid the price agreed upon and were going out to catch the westbound train. Seeing them going out of the door, Mrs. Hanks tore out after them, and, beating Mr. Brockway in the face with a wet dish towel, tore their dress-ing case out of his wife's hand. Policeman Selgfus was called in to quell the noise, but could do nothing to redress the grievance Mr. Brockway thought he had. Finally, as they wanted to catch the train, the tourists paid the extra charges and went on their way.
